CLOAK, SUIT and FUR DEPARTMENTS.

The Extraordinary Bargains we placed before buyers during the first week of our annual clearing sales in Ladies' and Misses' Cloak, Suit and Fur Departments has resulted in an enormous increase in business over all previous January records. To further enhance the interest, we offer for the second week still greater concessions in prices, our object being to close out all winter stock, so that every foot of room may be available for the display of our splendid collections of Imported and American-made Suits and Garments for the coming spring, which we will commence to receive early next month. A few quotations are given to indicate the substantial values we offer.

Great Bankrupt Sale

August & Minnie's Entire Stock.

Bought by us at a very great concession, and to be sold, beginning at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

Some at one-half value.
Some at one-third value.
Some at one-quarter value.
Some at the merest fraction of actual cost.

August & Minnie, 2284 Avenue, were perhaps the most enterprising of the merchants who have been attached to Harlem by its rapid growth. Many had started in the same way, but found they could not overcome the natural desire of the people to deal with the old-established houses further downtown. August & Minnie struggled hard against the inevitable. When they finally made their assignment the trade was surprised at the amount and variety of the stock. Selected with a thorough knowledge of the business, it embraced everything in the way of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, and is, we believe, the most desirable stock that has ever sacrificed for creditors.

NOTE WELL.—Sale begins MONDAY MORNING at 9 o'clock. Extra salespeople will insure reasonably prompt service to all. Deliveries will be made by our own wagons as usual to all parts of Brooklyn, Jersey, Staten Island, Yonkers, Tarrytown, Irvington. Prepaid purchases of $3.00 will be delivered FREE to all express points within seventy-five miles.

Sixth Ave. and 23d Street.

by newspaper slander. He proposes to move to the indictment.

County Auditor Keller makes the defence in his own case that all he certified to in regard to the bills he approved, and which are alleged to be false and fraudulent, was that there was sufficient money in the treasury to meet the bills, and that they had been incurred by authority of law. He failed to certify that the service had been rendered and material furnished, as he is required to do by law. It appears that Mr. Keller has altered the form of certificate that he attached to bills from that used by his predecessors, leaving out the words "and that the services have been rendered and the materials furnished, and that the charges for the same are just, reasonable and proper."

Mr. Keller says that he consulted counsel, and that the words were left out as he could not certify to material and services unless he had a force of inspectors, and that the certificate was all right so long as the Board of Supervisors did not object to it.

FOR THE HAMPTON NORMAL INSTITUTE.

A MEETING and ENTERTAINMENT to be GIVEN FOR ITS BENEFIT.

On two occasions this week public attention will be called to that excellent beneficiary, the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute. On Wednesday evening a public meeting will be held in the Madison Square Concert Hall, President Low, of Columbia College, presiding, at which addresses will be made by Carl Schurz, Joseph N. Choate and the Rev. Dr. Rainford. A chorus of sixty Hampton students will sing plantation melodies. All the boxes have been sold, a few seats on the floor have been reserved, which may be obtained from Mrs. Henry Villard, No. 175 West Fifty-eighth St.; Mrs. Almon Goodwin, No. 125 West Fifty-ninth St., or Mrs. Charles Spofford, No. 150 West Fifty-ninth St. The meeting will be held under the direction of Cornelius N. Bliss, Mrs. Abby Howell Gibbons, Henry Villard, Judge George C. Barrett, Dorman B. Eaton, the Rev. Dr. Henry M. Field, James G. Croswell, Mrs. William B. Rice, the Rev. Dr. John Hall, Mrs. Josephine Shaw Lowell, Charles C. Beaman, Charles Henry Webb and others.

On Thursday, at 2 p. m., at Daly's Theatre, where Mr. Daly has offered for the cause, the students will give the cantata of "Esther." This entertainment will be presented by Mrs. Henry Villard, Mrs. Alfred

HOME NEWS.

NEW-YORK CITY.

The New-York City Indian Association will hold a convention in the parlors of the Broadway Tabernacle to-morrow at 10:30 a. m.

The Rev. S. B. Rosdter, chaplain of the Grand National Curling Club, will preach the annual sermon to curlers in the North Presbyterian Church, Thirty-first and Ninth-avenue, next Sunday. A notice has been issued by the officers of the National Curling Club calling upon all curlers to attend the service.

The Rev. Dr. David H. Greer, of St. Bartholomew's Protestant Episcopal Church, will address the friends of the Young Men's Institute, No. 222 Bowery, on Tuesday, on the occasion of the eighth anniversary of the institute.

Professor Charles B. Cross, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will deliver an illustrated lecture on "The Determination and Recent History of Nuclear Pith, Especially in This Country," in Hamilton Hall, Columbia College, to-morrow evening.

Afternoon and evening concerts will be given at the Eden Musee to-day by Danko Gabor's gypsy band, and the Princess Dolgorouky will be heard in violin solos. The popularity of the weekly entertainment continues, and the performers include Gubal and Greville, and the clever Japanese magicians and jugglers, Ando and Omine.

A new circular from the Treasury Department was received at the Custom House yesterday modifying the original order directing the Collector to station an entry a deduction on non-deductible charges specified in the invoice, and to value therein to be included in the invoice. The present ruling is made so as to limit time to-day. To-morrow he starts for Jackson, Mich., having accepted a call to the Congregational Church there.

FLATBUSH.—The Rev. William C. Stiles, who succeeded the Rev. Dr. Edward Beecher, brother of Henry Ward Beecher, as pastor of the First Congregational Church, will preach there for the last time to-day. To-morrow he starts for Jackson, Mich., having accepted a call to the Congregational Church there.

RIVERHEAD.—The residents of this section of Long Island are greatly excited by the discovery of the mail. The First National Bank of Greatport, has been the greatest sufferer so far. On Friday, January 6, this bank mailed to the Suffolk County National Bank, of Riverhead, a check for $1,350, which has not yet been delivered. Since that time others having occasion to send money or checks to the banks have lost their letters.

COLD SPRING.—It is announced that a laboratory soon to be built at the fish hatchery, at Cold Spring, L. I., is to be occupied by the Brooklyn Institute School of Biology.

G. NICKELS TRIED THE WRONG DOOR.

T. PETRO TOOK THEM FOR A BURGALAR AND THREW HIM DOWN STAIRS—THE MAN INJURED.

Tony Petro, of No. 151 Elizabeth-st., was held without bail by Judge McMahon, in the Town Police Court yesterday morning, to await the result of the injuries inflicted upon Godfred Nickels.

On Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. Nickels, who live at No. 151 Mott-st., went to Harlem to visit friends where, it is said, they drank too much mixed ale. Instead of going to their home when they returned at a late hour, they made a mistake and turned down Elizabeth-st., entering No. 151. They groped along the dark halls and made their way to the top floor, where their own room is in the house in Mott-st. They were much surprised to find that their key would not admit them. They knocked and pounded, but no one answered. The only response was the voice of a man, warning them to get away. They persisted, however, in their efforts to get into the room. Suddenly the door was opened, and a man who turned out to be Petro, appeared with a club in his hand.

He used the club on Nickels' head and body, and finally threw him down the flight of stairs. He had taken the intruders for burglars and had expected their attack, as he supposed it was. But Nickels was seriously injured. An ambulance from Chamber Hospital was summoned and his wounds were dressed by the surgeon. He was taken to his right home in Mott-st. His injuries are said to be serious.

A MAN BEATS ANOTHER WITH A WHIFFLETREE.

In a quarrel on Friday in the horse-shoeing department of the Belt Line Railway Company, Thomas McCarthy, employee, was severely beaten about the head and body with a whiffletree by the assistant foreman, Matthew Harrison, living at No. 540 West Fifty-ninth-st. McCarthy is now confined at his home, No. 518 West Thirty-first-st., suffering from a severe fracture of the skull and bruises all over the body. Yesterday Detective Morris, of the West Forty-seventh-st. Squad, brought Harrison to the Yorkville Police Court, and presented a certificate from Dr. George V. Hann, of No. 513 West Fifty-first-st., to Justice Tailor. Justice Tailor held Harrison in $1,000 bail, to await the result of McCarthy's injuries. He furnished bonds.

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

Judge Werts retired from the Supreme bench of the Hudson County Circuit, N. J., yesterday, preparatory to his installation as governor on Tuesday. The court officers presented to him a jardiniere of flowers at the Court House. The jardiniere is Hungarian in design, hand-carved, by Fischer, of Buda Pesth. It is said that there is only one other like it in the country. Judge Werts was entertained at dinner at the Hotel Washington last evening by the Hudson Bar Association. Speeches were made by Governor Abbott, ex-governor Joseph D. Bodie, Chancellor McGill, John A. Blair, Judge Dixon and others. Washington B. Williams presided.

Chief Engineer Ruggles, of the Jersey City Water Department, yesterday employed the pumping engine of the wall at the high service station. It is expected that the work will be completed to-night, and that by to-morrow there will be an abundant supply of water.

NEWARK.

A REMARKABLE RECOVERY.

John Bulger, a man about thirty years old, was strangled by an Italian on Sunday morning, April 26, 1891. The knife made a gash in Bulger's abdomen, and from this wound three or four feet of the intestines protruded. Bulger was taken to the City Hospital and 127 stitches were taken in his wound. He remained in the hospital until June 14, 1892, when he was discharged. After a rest of several months he has now gone to work driving a coal wagon.

"I'll burn your place down. If it takes me ten years to do it, if you make any complaint against me," said John Williams, of Park Row, New-York, to Alderman Heinkel on Chapel-st. Friday evening. Alderman Heinkel had noticed Williams insulting young girls as they passed the corner, and calling an officer, caused his arrest. In the Third Criminal Court yesterday Williams was charged with disorderly conduct and sent to jail for thirty days.

The executive committee of the New-Jersey Historical Society, at a meeting held yesterday morning, discussed the feasibility of acquiring the building now occupied by the New-York Public Library as a permanent home for the society. Robert F. Hall, president, and the New-Jersey sub-committee, were appointed a committee to secure what financial aid they could and to devise ways and means for securing a suitable building.

NEW-BRUNSWICK.

The Board of Aldermen, at their meeting on Friday evening, considered the petition of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to straighten its tracks through this city from Paterson to Nelson-st. Chief Engineer Brooks and other railroad officials were present and explained their plans in detail. The Aldermen deferred the matter until a later meeting.

John Kersness, fifty-one years old, of No. 137 Commercial-ave., a carpenter employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad, was badly hurt shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. While framing ties at East New-Brunswick he slipped and fell under the wheels of a freight engine and his left hand and arm were crushed. He was taken to the West-Memorial Hospital, where examination showed that the arm must be amputated close to the shoulder.

PLAINFIELD.

Twenty-five women prominent in Union and Somerset counties met at the seminary in Plainfield yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of a conference for representation at the World's Fair Exposition. Mrs. Florence Howe Hall, chairman of the Plainfield committee, presided, and an address was delivered by Mrs. Yardley, of the New-Jersey sub-committee, who gave interesting information concerning the plans of the women's national committee.

ELIZABETH.

The Elizabeth Mutual Insurance Company, which was organized in 1812, has been dissolved, and its policies, showing risks of $2,500,000, have been transferred to the German-American Insurance Company of New-York.

The practice cruiser Hancock will probably have her official trial on Wednesday and Thursday next. Since the preliminary trial, the builders, Samuel L. Moore & Sons Company, have been preparing for the final trial, and they are confident that the Hancock will exceed the speed requirement of twelve knots.

ENGLEWOOD.

Sheppard House, president of the Provident Savings Life Assurance Society of New-York City, sailed yesterday, with Mrs. Homans, for a three-months' trip to the West Indies.

The free kindergarten in Englewood Hall will be opened this week, under the charge of a trained instructor.

The Englewood Collegiate School for Girls, Miss Caroline M. Gerrish principal, will, after the 1st of

TRIBUNE EXTRAS.

AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES.—The Tribune roll of persons reported to be worth a million or more has been revised and republished. It gives the names of 4,617 millionaires of the United States, and the lines of business which each one made his fortune. With paper cover, in pamphlet form, the publication will cost 25 cents, postage paid. A subscription edition, on heavy paper, with flexible cloth covers, will be mailed to any address, in paper box, for $1. Previously 300 changes have been made in the list.

"OUR CHANCEY."—"Our Chancey" is Chancey M. Depew, who is certainly acknowledged to be one of the foremost of American orators—brilliant, sparkling, sound and sagacious. His after-dinner speeches are such the mantle and the despair of his rivals. "Our Chancey" is a poem, by Isaac D. Bromley, illustrated profusely and comically by Dan Beard and C. D. Gibson, two of the best pen-and-ink artists in New-York City. It is a delicious piece of fun, and it is moreover thoroughly possessed of a strong and sincere admiration for its eloquent subject. It is doubtful whether Mr. Bromley has ever done his wit more credit than in these dashing, rollicking and brilliant verses. Retail price, 31 a copy. The book has been offered as a premium to the readers of the Weekly Tribune, and any actual subscribers to the Weekly Tribune, on the same terms, will receive 50 cents a copy in addition to any subscription. The book is sent in a paper box.

CHILD and THE NEW AMERICAN NAVY.—President Harrison's messages to Congress on the 1st of January, 1893, contained a list of the new warships of the United States, and a list of the old vessels, their size, armament, crews, etc. This document also gives a complete list of all the vessels of the old Navy. This Extra will read with the deepest interest by every American citizen. Pamphlet form, 64 pages, 25 cents a copy.

CAMPAIGN SHEET EXTRAS.—The campaign sheet over, but the discussion of economic and political questions is not. For the benefit of those who are interested in the campaign, the Tribune has issued a series of campaign sheets extra of the Tribune, 10 in number, will be sent to those desiring them for 15 cents, postage paid.

WARSHIPS SUNK AT YAMATO.—Men make the American Navy fully as much as American ships. 19th what could we depend in a foreign war? Read the stories of the gallant courage, the inequality and dogged obstinacy with which our warships encountered the overwhelming forces of Nature in the hurricane at Samoa! This number also contains the "Johnston Disaster," "American Girls Abroad" and their thrilling adventures. Stories of Hunting, etc. 104 pages, 10 cents a copy.

TRIBUNE WAR STORIES.—A magnificent collection of over 400 stories of the Civil War, written by actual participants. Some of their names are among the most illustrious and patriotic which have been put into print. 104 pages, 25 cents a copy.

"VILLAGE IMPROVEMENT."—Why American villages differ in prosperity. In small pamphlet form, the charming article of B. G. Northrop, setting forth the value of handsome appearance and sanitary betterments, the pleasure to be derived by the inhabitants from improvement associations and the great service any man can do for his native village. 5 cents a copy. $3 per 100 copies. 500 copies $14. 1,000 copies $25.

KNITTING and CROCHET, 1891.—New, 96 pages. The handsomest and best knitting and Crochet Extra ever issued by The Tribune. 25 cents a copy. This issue is devoted to patterns for lace garments, hosiery and cushion covers, trimming, curtains, bands, bags, mats, scarfs, ties, lamp shades, etc. In addition, 44 pages of the charming "Home and Society" articles from the Sunday Tribune. A delightful number.

SHORT TALKS with AMERICAN VOTERS.—92-page pamphlet composed entirely of the magnificent articles of Hon. Roswell G. Harr, written for The Weekly Tribune, on the Tariff and the Currency. It is a series of talks for the information of an aggressive Republican campaign. Every campaign orator should possess a copy. "Protection Not a Tax," "Why a High Tariff Pays," "The Real Doctrine of Protection," "Rich and Poor in America," "Reciprocity," "Money for the People," "Farm Improvement Abroad," "The Omaha Platform," "Farm Mortgage," and "Alliance Flat Money Nationalism," are only a few of the topics treated. 25 cents a copy.

MURKIN INDUSTRIES.—New. A compilation of striking articles from The Tribune, describing industries which have been established under or benefited by the McKinley bill. Figures are given showing better wages and lower prices of manufactured goods. 25 cents a copy.

AFTER-DINNER SPEECHES.—A handsome pamphlet of 48 pages, containing the most eloquent and entertaining after-dinner speeches and memorial addresses of the public dinners of the winter of 1891-92 in New-York City. 25 cents a copy.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1892.—The proceedings, reported by the Rev. John B. Devlin, an experienced journalist and Presbyterian clergyman, and revised and enlarged. In pamphlet form. 25 cents a copy.

TRIBUNE ALMANAC, 1893.—Contains the platform of all the parties in 1893, and the election returns and statistical dates of that year. 350 pages, 25 cents a copy.

CHAUTAUQU IN 1892.—Now ready in a handsome pamphlet of 48 pages. Profusely illustrated. 25 cents a copy.

For other Extras of The Tribune send for circular.
